VALLEY FORGE ATTRACTS MANY VISITORS YEARLY

The 1500-Acre Reservation Is Well Kept and Places of Interest Are Marked

MECCA FOR MOTORISTS

HARRISBURG, July 25 — Neat lawns, bright shrubbery, well-kept roads and a chapel of incomparable beauty and unique design in the Valley Forge of 1935 are in striking contrast with the scene 157 years ago.

In the 1500-acre reservation dedicated as an imperishable monument to those early American heroes is enshrined all that is dear and sacred to a grateful nation. Washington Chapel, an edifice of inspiring beauty with an air of solemnity and stately dignity impresses the visitor with the deep significance of Valley Forge.

The reservation has many miles of excellent roads, place markers to guide the visitor to significant spots, ample parking space to enable leisurely inspection afoot. The earth fortifications, trench systems, and crude huts erected to shelter and protect the poorly dressed and badly fed army under George Washington are preserved and marked as an object lesson in Americanism and personal sacrifice.

It was at Valley Forge that 11,000 men, constituting the Continental Army, spent the winter of 1777-1778, the darkest period of the struggle for independence. Here came Baron Steuben to drill the soldiers and teach discipline. Here General Washington by personal example rekindled the loyalty of his troops while he pleaded with the colonists for supplies and support, shoes, and food.

Washington's headquarters during the period are preserved, containing relics, authentic Washington documents and a host of interesting articles illustrative of the life and custom of the period.

Valley Forge is less than 20 miles northwest of Philadelphia, just west of Norristown. Good roads lead in all directions. Route 23 is popular, connecting Lancaster and Philadelphia via Blue Bell, a leisurely drive. U. S. Route 202 is the east-west connection from which Route 83 may be reached.

U. S. Route 202 crosses the Lincoln Highway at Paoli, a few minutes driving time from Valley Forge. It was at Paoli, on the night of September 20, 1777, that British and Hessian soldiers made a surprise attack upon General Anthony Wayne's Continental troops. The resultant slaughter was a severe shock to the struggling nation builders and perhaps a stinging spur which lent new impetus to the Revolutionary fight. A monument marks the spot where this American tragedy was enacted.

Some 25 miles east of Valley Forge lies Washington Crossing, adjacent to Roosevelt State Park. Familiar to all is the story of the Christmas night in 1776 and the victory at Trenton in which no American soldier lost his life and but four Americans sustained wounds.

Along the Delaware River for 40 miles is a canal famous in its era as an avenue of commerce. For more than 100 years freight and passengers were transported on barges. Now dedicated to recreation and pleasure, the canal still carries passengers on pleasure larks, patient mules hitched tandem towing the barges seven or eight miles. So popular is this pastime that reservations must be made through the Barge Master, New Hope, Pa., well in advance of the intended visit.

ONE KILLED, TWO HURT, WHEN CAR HITS CULVERT

Four Escape Injuries in Accident at Sharp Curve in Revere

ALL PHILADELPHIANS

DOYLESTOWN, July 27—A Philadelphia youth was instantly killed, two sustained injuries, and three were unhurt, when the automobile in which they were enroute to the Pocono Mountains to pass their vacation, struck a concrete culvert in failing to make a curve on the Lackawanna Trail at Revere last midnight.

The dead: Morton Lomis, 19, of 3224 W. Norris street, Philadelphia.

The injured: Harry Lorber, 19, of 5439 Upland Way, Philadelphia, treated at Doylestown Emergency Hospital for a badly lacerated scalp, and discharged one hour later; and Jack Glazer, 20, of 2219 N. 33rd street, Philadelphia, treated at Easton Hospital for lacerations and bruises.

Others in the party were: Benjamin Glazer, 21, 4927 N. Eighth street; Morton Pripstein, 19, of 3223 W. Norris street; and Joseph Ganstain, 20, of 3008 W. Berks street, Philadelphia.

The driver of the car was Jack Glazer, brother of Benjamin. He will be placed under arrest today by Patrolman William Engle, of the Doylestown sub-station of the highway patrol. A hearing will be given within the next few days before a local justice of the peace.

The tragic accident will be investigated by the office of Dr. John J. Sweeney, Bucks County coroner.

The version of the accident learned by officers is that the six young men were riding in one car. In failing to make a sharp curve at Revere the machine struck the culvert, with the result the left rear of the car was torn from the body. This was the side on which Lomis was seated, and it is stated he was thrown to the highway.

FINAL TRIBUTES ARE PAID TO THE LATE J. L. MCGEE

People From All Walks of Life Gather to Pay Their Respects

FUNERAL TODAY

Superintendent of Public Safety Laid to Rest With Honors

Men and women from all walks of life paid tribute to James L. McGee, Bristol's first superintendent of public safety and the first chief of its consolidated fire department, when his funeral was held today. The services were attended by those active in the official life of the community as well as those who knew "Jim" McGee as friend, neighbor and fellow-worker in civic and fraternal affairs. Burgess Clifford L. Anderson headed a delegation representing borough council while numerous others of prominence were in attendance.

Beginning yesterday afternoon and lasting until the time the funeral was scheduled to leave the McGee home, many people visited the residence to pay their last tribute of respect and esteem.

They stood in long line waiting admittance to the McGee home and these queues of people passed through the front door of the residence, viewed the body and then left by a rear door. This continued throughout the evening and was evidence of the esteem in which the deceased was held by the hundreds who knew him.

The body lay upon a bronze casket of couch type. It was clothed in a formal dress suit with the regalia of the Archbishop Ryan Assembly, which is the fourth degree of the Knights of Columbus.

A color guard of the Assembly was stationed beside the casket throughout the night and held services, last evening, as did Bristol Lodge, No. 970, B. P. O. Elks. Members of Bucks Lodge, No. 1169, Loyal Order of Moose attended individually.

The funeral cortege was a long one as it wended its way today from the late residence of the deceased, 330 Washington street, to St. Mark's Church, where solemn mass of requiem was sung. The church was filled and the service was conducted by the Rev. Father William A. Maguire and the Rev. Father Paul Baird, St. Mark's Church with the Rev. Fathers Frank Mealy, Philadelphia; Richard Phelan, South Langhorne; Thomas Rocco and Marcelino Romagnolo, also being in the church.

The organ was played by Miss Katherine Keating while the soloists were Mrs. Edward M. Keating, Miss Celia Kelly and Percy G. Ford.

The pall-bearers were three members of the police department, and three from the fire department: Linford J. Jones, chief; George Pollard and Daniel Ferry, patrolmen; Clifford Hagerman, first assistant fire chief; Livingston Joyce, fire captain; William Bennett, engine man. The pall-bearers were in their regulation uniforms.

Those prominent in Knights of Columbus circles throughout the state who were in attendance included: State Deputy, J. R. P. Magill, Philadelphia; District Deputy, L. J. Mellon, Philadelphia; Navigator Archbishop Ryan Assembly, fourth degree, Thomas D. McCloud, Philadelphia; grand knight, James J. Rigley, Holmesburg; grand knight, Frank Welsh, Willow Grove; grand knight, David J. Farley, Tacony; Raymond P. Farrell, former district deputy.

The funeral was largely attended, 100 men walking from the house to the church and in addition there were 50 automobiles filled with friends. The funeral procession proceeded out Washington street to Radcliffe to the church which was filled to capacity, many standing throughout the mass.

Following the church service the funeral procession was led by a detail of two State Highway Patrolmen from the church to St. Mark's cemetery where burial was made. Bristol police and constable Joseph Seader were detailed to traffic duty along the route which led past the three fraternal societies with which the deceased was affiliated and through Mulberry street, so as to pass the Municipal Building. The fire apparatus stood in line outside of the fire station and the bells were tolled as the cortege passed.

Mr. McGee died Tuesday afternoon following a long illness.

EFFICIENT KITCHENS PROVE OF GREAT AID TO THE HOME-MAKERS

By Rhendana A. Armstrong
Home Economics Representative

The ideal kitchen for efficient work is small and square, or nearly so. There should be plenty of light with windows so arranged as to give cross-ventilation.

Every homemaker is familiar with the kitchen routine but not all kitchen equipment is arranged to carry out that routine in the most efficient manner.

The sink, range, work surface, and working equipment should be so arranged that the work progresses in a logical order with the least amount of recrossing paths of work. The right-handed person stacks her dishes at her right, by the sink and they proceed to the left and to a nearby cupboard. A sink without a double drain board may be equipped with a drop leaf at the end or on the wall. The height of the sink, as of all working surfaces, is most important. Raise or lower the surface to a height comfortable for the person at work.

Floor coverings are important. Not only should one consider beauty and durability, but comfort of standing and ease of caring for them.

Wall finishes if light, cheerful, and easily cared for add to the homemaker's comfort and cheerfulness. Lights should be well adjusted, the light coming from above and falling on the work without dazzle or flicker. No kitchen is equipped efficiently without adequate storage space. Built-in cupboards with well-spaced shelves, drawers, and bins will furnish room for equipment and provisions. Nor can we omit the stool, a clock, and a waste container.

TAMPA, Fla. — (INS) — Forty-one years ago friends told Mott and Clint Davis they should "hire a hall" for their birthday parties. They did, and each year the twins' natal celebrations have assumed larger proportions. This year the twins rented an amusement park here for their eightieth birthday, and thousands attended.

SQUEEZE PLAY GIVES CASEYS FOURTH WIN

The old-fashioned "squeeze" play gave the Caseys their fourth consecutive triumph in the Bristol Twilight League last night as "Eddie" McDevitt's minions nosed out the Edgelys A. A., 4-3, in a very fast contest.

With the score 3-3 in the sixth the stage was set for the squeeze. Cooper had drawn a pass, stole second, and continued to third on Kimble's error. On the second pitch, Cooper tore for the plate and as the ball sailed pastward, Dougherty laid down a bunt, it was too late to try for Cooper so Wright tossed the pill to first for a put-out, enabling Cooper to score the winning tally.

"Happy" Hovatter was the winning chucker, giving the Edgelyites six safe hits, fanning six batters. He was saved by some brilliant fielding in the sixth when with two on and no one out a fast double-play, Cahall to Dougherty to McDevitt, came to his rescue.

Hunter, Joe Dick, and Cooper led the batters with two bingles each. "Mel" Wright was the losing pitcher.

RIVERTON A. C. WINS OVER LANDRETH NINE

A bad first inning in which fly balls got away from Sullivan and Hibbs, gave the Riverton A. C. a 5-3 victory over the Landreth Seed-Packers last night in a hotly-staged contest played on Leedom's field. The mis-judging of the fly-balls accounted for four Jersey runs which gave them the victory.

Several bad breaks prevented the Seeds-men from winning the contest. In the fourth while in the midst of a rally, Umpire Bleakney called Purcell out, claiming that he was hit by a batted ball. As the bases were loaded at the time and Sullivan followed with a long fly, the decision cost at least one run. In the sixth a brilliant piece of plate-blocking by Harper prevented Purcell from tallying. Purcell had attempted to score from second when Bruce's hit got away from Foulke. Purcell had a chance to score while Harper was juggling the throw from Foulke but the plate was well-blocked and before Purcell could touch the platter Harper had the ball on him for the third out of the inning.

The Landreth-men scored two tallies in the eighth on a hit by "Joie" Heitman with the sacks loaded but the rally ended here when Sullivan lifted a skier to Weikman. In the fifth the Bristolians had the sacks loaded but still failed to score.

"Danny" Hines did the twirling for the losers, being tapped for eleven hits, three by Baker, first sacker of the Jerseyites. The winning pitcher was Leon Coles who was solved for nine hits, with Purcell and Heitman getting two each. Conway made four excellent catches in left for the visitors.

TWILIGHT LEAGUE TEAM TO BE PLAYED TOMORROW

The first Bristol Twilight League game to be scheduled for a Sunday afternoon will be played here tomorrow with the Edgely A. C. playing the St. Ann's nine on Leedom's field at three o'clock.

The Edgelyites are in the race for the first half championship, while the St. Ann's hopes are fading by the Saints losing three straight contests. Scordia will pitch for the cellar-dwellers with Walterick leading the hurling for the Edgely club.

"TOMMY" STAKE BLANKS JEFFERSON A. C. NINE

"Tommy" Stake blanked the Jefferson A. C., 6-0, last night at Tullytown A. A. added their fourth straight victory to its total of the second half of the Bristol Twilight League. Stake allowed five hits and fanned eleven in the seven inning fracas.

Opposed to Stake was "Reds" McCurry. McCurry had one bad inning, the fifth, in which Tullytown counted four times. Bad errors by Tullio and Prall and base hits by Jeffries and Sullivan with a base on balls to W. Ritter aided the Tullytowners in this game. Errors also helped the winners to a tally in the second and another in the sixth.

Stake seemed to retire every batter easily with the exception of "Camel" Breslin. Three times he lined out a base hit for a perfect evening with the stick.

The contest was the fourth straight defeat for the Tomlinsonmen.

Communist Riot Delays Ship at New York Pier

NEW YORK, July 27.—(INS)—A police investigation was under way today into a Communist riot at Pier 86 on the North River shortly after midnight that delayed departure of the North German Lloyd liner Bremen for several hours.

Approximately 1,500 Communists battled with 100 detectives, 150 uniformed patrolmen and 25 mounted policemen.

Two shots were fired and it was reported one of the Reds was wounded. The trouble started when three of the Communists, disguised as passengers, boarded the ship and tore the German flag from the bow of the liner and threw it into the water.

Pandemonium resulted immediately. More Communists forced their way on the vessel while the police and members of the crew sought to put off those who had torn down the flag.

On the dock and on the gangways leading to the ship the Reds massed, shouted "Down with Hitler!" and sang the "Internationale."

Several thousand persons had gone to bid bon voyage to departing passengers and the Communists mingled among them, making it difficult for the police to rush them.

A number of notables were among the ship's passengers. These included Anthony J. Drexel Biddle, who sailed to take over his duties as Minister to Norway. Governor George H. Earle of Pennsylvania, and other political leaders from the Keystone State were on hand to bid him good-bye.

After the ship sailed police announced that eight alleged Communists had been arrested. At least ten persons are said to have received minor injuries.
